

CONFERENCE

Microwork platforms: a challenge for artificial intelligence, a challenge for employment ?

Thursday, June 13, 2019 from 9:00 to 17:30

France Stratégie — Auditorium Marceau Long 20, avenue de Ségur — 75007 Paris

09:00 Accueil et introduction

Gilles de MARGERIE, commissaire général,
France Stratégie

09:15 SESSION 1 Why microwork matters ? Artificial intelligence, science and markets

Facilitator
André TORRE, director of the MSH
Paris-Saclay

Vili LEHDONVIRTA, professor, Oxford Internet
Institute

Antonio CASILLI, professor at Telecom ParisTech,
Diplab project

Florian Alexander SCHMIDT, professor, University of Applied Sciences HTW Dresden

Tea & Coffee break

11:00 SESSION 2 Microworking in France

Facilitator
Antoine NABOULET, France Stratégie

Paola TUBARO, senior research scientist, CNRS,
Diplab project

Clément LE LUDEC, research fellow, MSH Paris-
Saclay, Diplab project

Marion COVILLE, researcher, Université de Nantes,
Diplab project

Louis-Charles VIOSSAT, inspector general for social affairs

Anoush MARGARYAN, professor, Copenhagen
Business School

Lunch break

13:45 SESSION 3 Meet the microworkers

Facilitator
Odile CHAGNY, economist, IRES,
Sharers & Workers

Amélie, Ferdinand, Julie, Microworkers

Daniel BENOILID, co-founder of the platform Wirk (foulefactory)

Joseph DUREAU, chief technical officer, Snips

Tea & Coffee break

15:30 SESSION 4 Platform, microwork and employment: global perspectives

Facilitator
Cécile JOLLY, France Stratégie

Mariya ALEKSYNSKA, economist, IZA, Institute of Labor Economics

Marguerita LANE, economist, OECD

Thiebaut WEBER, former Confederal Secretary, ETUC

Patricia VENDRAMIN, professor, Université
Catholique de Louvain

Gilles BABINET, vice president of the French digital council (CNNum)